PARKERSBURG, W. VA., the county seat, is a city of diversified industries and fine living conditions. Established in 1811, located on the beautiful Ohio River. South of the Mason Dixon Line, it is neither Northern or Southern in customs or climate.

Blennerhassett Island, near Parkersburg, is well known because Aaron Burr visited here after his duel with Alexander Hamilton.

DISTRIBUTED BY VALLEY NEWS SERVICE, PARKERSBURG, W. VA.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C. T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

© CURT TEICH & CO., INC.

3B-H1433